1. संक्षिप्त नाम और प्रारम्भ.—(1) इन नियमों का संक्षिप्त नाम हिमाचल प्रदेश विलास वस्तुओं पर कर (होटलों और किराया गृहों में) (संशोधन) नियम, 1992 है।

(2) ये 1 जुलाई, 1992 से प्रवृत्त होंगे।

2. Insertion of rule 8-A.—After rule 8 of the said rules, the following rule 8-A, shall be inserted, namely :—

“8-A. Manner of determination and payment of lump-sum luxury tax.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the proprietor shall pay to the State Government the luxury tax in lump-sum to be determined by the Assessing Authority on the basis of the formula and in the manner hereinafter provided, and after following the procedure specified in sub-rule (2), namely :—

Capacity of a hotel × the rates and the charges fixed for the luxury provided in a hotel × entire period of a financial year × rate of luxury tax.

Explanation.—In this formula,—

- (a) the “capacity of a hotel” means the entire class-wise accommodation for residence available in a hotel;
- (b) “the rates and the charges fixed for the luxury provided in a hotel” mean—
  - (i) those rates and the charges which are fixed by the prescribed authority under the Himachal Pradesh Tourist Trade Act, 1988 ; or
  - (ii) those rates and the charges which are actually payable to the proprietor for the luxury provided in a hotel, in case where the rates and the charges have not been fixed by the prescribed authority under the Himachal Pradesh Tourist Trade Act, 1988 ;
- (c) in order to determine lump-sum luxury tax the period of 365 days (in case of a leap year the period of 366 days) that is, the entire period of a financial year, shall be apportioned into respective units of the period as “season” (from September 16 to June 30) and “off-season” (from July 1st to September 15) for which different rates and the charges, if any, have been fixed or are payable ; and
- (d) the “rate of luxury tax” means the rate notified under sub-section(5) of section 4 of the Act ;

Provided that where the lump-sum luxury tax so determined is less than the average amount of luxury tax paid or payable during the last three years or the actual of the previous year immediately preceding the year for which lump-sum luxury tax is being determined, the luxury tax payable shall be the said average amount of luxury tax or the said actual, whichever is higher :

Provided further that where the rates of luxury tax and the rates and the charges for the luxury provided in a hotel are increased at any time during the year for which the lump-sum luxury tax is determined, for the purpose of the first proviso the average amount of luxury tax paid or payable during the last three years or actuals of the previous year immediately preceding the year for which luxury tax is being determined shall be deemed to be the amount which would have been, had the said increase in the rate of luxury tax and the rates and the charges would have been taken into account while calculating the said average amount or actual of luxury tax :

Provided further that where the proprietor has been unable to run his hotel due to any unforeseeable reasons namely, the death of the sole proprietor, dissolution of a partnership, cessation of business of running the hotel, and the like and the Assessing Authority finds the precluding circumstances as true and correct, no luxury tax shall be leviable for the period for which the business of running the hotel remained closed and the luxury tax for the period of such closure of the business shall be deductible from the aggregate luxury tax liability determined under this rule in respect of the hotel, subject to the condition that satisfactory evidence of such closure is brought on record :

Provided further that where the proprietor has been unable to run his hotel for complete month, for any reasons other than those mentioned in the preceding proviso, and furnishes an advance information to the Assessing Authority intimating his intention of not running the hotel, no luxury tax shall be leviable for the said month subject to the condition that the Assessing Authority issues to the proprietor a certificate to the effect that the advance information was duly received in his office and he has personally verified the facts and found them true and correct :

Provided further that no deduction under the preceding proviso shall be allowed for a period of less than one month.

(2) The Assessing Authority shall follow the following procedure for determining lump-sum luxury tax under sub-rule (1) :—

- (a) the amount of deductions to be allowed in pursuance of the provisions contained in the third and the fourth provisos to sub-rule (1) shall be determined by the Assessing Authority at the close of every half-financial-year for which assessment is made under section 7 of the Act ;
- (b) before determining the amount of tax in lump-sum under sub-rule (1), the Assessing Authority shall afford an opportunity of being heard to the proprietor by serving on him a notice in Form 'V-A' ordinarily in the first fortnight of January in each financial year, requiring him on a date and place to be indicated therein either to attend in person or to produce or cause to be produced any evidence which such proprietor may wish to produce;
- (c) on the day specified in the notice or as soon as after-wards the Assessing Authority shall, after considering such other evidence as it may require on specific points, ordinarily determine the lump-sum luxury tax,—

(i) for the period from 1-7-1992 to 31-3-1993 before 25th July, 1992 and shall issue a notice of demand in Form 'VII-A' ;

(ii) for the financial years from 1993-94 onwards, before the close of February each year and the Assessing Authority shall issue a notice of demand in Form 'VII-A' ; and

(d) notwithstanding anything contained hereinbefore where the rate of luxury tax under sub-section(5) of section 4 of the Act or the rates and the charges for the luxury provided in a hotel are changed by the Government or by the prescribed authority respectively or in other cases by the proprietor, the amount of lump-sum luxury tax shall be re-determined in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1) and notice of demand in Form 'VII-A' shall be re-issued accordingly.

(e) The lump-sum amount of luxury tax determined under sub-rule (1) for the entire period of a financial year or part thereof, shall be split up into equal monthly instalments as the case may be, and each instalment shall be payable in cash by the proprietor in the Government treasury on or before the eighth day after the close of the month to which the instalment relates, and the proprietor shall furnish to the Assessing Authority a return in Form 'V-B' on or before the 15th day after the close of each quarter to which the return relates."

3. Insertion of Forms 'V-A' and 'V-B'.—After Form 'V' appended to the said rules, the following Forms 'V-A' and 'V-B' shall be inserted, namely :—

EXCISE AND TAXATION DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Shimla-2, the 1st July, 1992

No. EXN-F(21)2/92.—In exercise of the powers conferred under section 17 of the Himachal Pradesh Tax on Luxuries (in Hotels and Lodging Houses) Act, 1979 (Act No. 15 of 1979), the Governor of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to make the following rules further to amend the Himachal Pradesh Tax on luxuries (in Hotels and Lodging Houses) Rules, 1979 (hereinafter called the 'said rules') published in Rajpatra, Himachal Pradesh, Extraordinary, dated the 18th March, 1980 vide Government Notification No. EXN-F (10)-5/79, dated the 2nd February, 1989, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Himachal Pradesh Tax on Luxuries (in Hotels and Lodging Houses) (Amendment) Rules, 1992.

(2) These shall come into force with effect from 1st day of July, 1992.

2. Insertion of rule 8-A.—After rule 8 of the said rules, the following rule 8-A shall be inserted namely:—

“8-A. Manner of determination and payment of lump-sum luxury tax.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the proprietor shall pay to the State Government the luxury tax in lump-sum to be determined by the Assessing Authority on the basis of the formula and in the manner hereinafter provided, and after following the procedure specified in sub-rule (2), namely:

$\text{Capacity of a hotel} \times \text{the rates and the charges fixed for the luxury provided in a hotel} \times \text{entire period of a financial year} \times \text{rate of luxury tax.}$

Explanation.—In this formula,—

(a) the “capacity of a hotel” means the entire class-wise accommodation for residence available in a hotel;

(b) “the rates and the charges fixed for the luxury provided in a hotel” mean—

(i) those rates and the charges which are fixed by the prescribed authority under the Himachal Pradesh Tourist Trade Act, 1988; or

(ii) those rates and the charges which are actually payable to the proprietor for the luxury provided in a hotel, in case where the rates and the charges have not been fixed by the prescribed authority under the Himachal Pradesh Tourist Trade Act, 1988;

(c) in order to determine lump-sum luxury tax the period of 365 days (in case of a leap year the period of 366 days) that is, the entire period of a financial year, shall be apportioned into respective units of the period as “season” (from September 16 to June, 30) and “off-season” (from July 1st to September 15) for which different rates and the charges, if any, have been fixed or are payable; and

(d) the “rate of luxury tax” means the rates notified under sub-section (5) of section 4 of the Act:

Provided that where the lump-sum luxury tax so determined is less than the average amount of luxury tax paid or payable during the last three years or the actual of the previous year immediately preceding the year for which lump-sum luxury tax is being determined, the luxury tax payable shall be the said average amount of luxury tax or the said actual, whichever is higher:

Provided further that where the rates of luxury tax and the rates and the charges for the luxury provided in a hotel are increased at any time during the year for which the lump-sum luxury tax is determined, for the purpose of the first proviso the average amount of luxury tax paid or payable during the last three years or actuals of the previous year immediately preceding the year for which luxury tax is being determined shall be deemed to be the amount which would have been, had the said increase in the rate of luxury tax and the rates and the charges would have been taken into account while calculating the said average amount or actual of luxury tax.

Provided further that where the proprietor has been unable to run his hotel due to any unforeseen reason, namely, the death of the sole proprietor, dissolution of a partnership, cessation of business of running the hotel, and the like and the Assessing Authority finds the precluding circumstances as true and correct, no luxury tax shall be leviable for the period for which the business of running the hotel remained closed and the luxury tax for the period of such closure of the business shall be deductible from the aggregate luxury tax liability determined under this rule in respect of the hotel, subject to the condition that satisfactory evidence of such closure is brought on record:

Provided further that where the proprietor has been unable to run his hotel for complete month, for any reasons other than those mentioned in the preceding proviso, and furnishes an advance information to the Assessing Authority intimating his intention of not running the hotel, no luxury tax shall be leviable for the said month subject to the condition that the Assessing Authority issues to the proprietor a certificate to the effect that the advance information was duly received in his office and he has personally verified the facts and found them true and correct:

Provided further that no deduction under the preceding proviso shall be allowed for a period of less than one month.

(2) The Assessing authority shall follow the following procedure for determining lump-sum luxury tax under sub-rule (1):—

(a) the amount of deductions to be allowed in pursuance of the provisions contained in the third and the fourth provisos to sub-rule (1) shall be determined by the Assessing Authority at the close of every half-financial-year for which assessment is made under section 7 of the Act;

(b) before determining the amount of tax in lump-sum under sub-rule (1), the Assessing Authority shall afford an opportunity of being heard to the proprietor by serving on him a notice in Form 'V-A' ordinarily in the first fortnight of January in each financial year, requiring him on a date and place to be indicated therein either to attend in person or to produce or cause to be produced any evidence which such proprietor may wish to produce;

(c) on the day specified in the notice or as soon as after wards the Assessing Authority shall, after considering such other evidence as it may require on specific points, ordinarily determine the lump-sum luxury tax,—

(i) for the period from 1-7-1992 to 31-3-1993 before 25th July, 1992 and shall issue a notice of demand in Form 'VII-A';

(ii) for the financial years from 1993-94 onwards, before the close of February each year and the Assessing Authority shall issue a notice of demand in Form 'VII-A'; and

(d) notwithstanding anything contained hereinbefore where the rate of luxury tax under sub-section (5) of section 4 of the Act or the rates and the charges for the luxury provided in a hotel are changed by the Government or by the prescribed authority respectively or in other cases by the proprietor, the amount of lump-sum luxury tax shall be re-determined in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1) and notice of demand in Form 'VII-A' shall be re-issued accordingly.

(3) The lump-sum amount of luxury tax determined under sub-rule (1) for the entire period of a financial year or part thereof, shall be split up into equal monthly instalments as the case may be, and each instalment shall be payable in cash by the proprietor in the Government treasury on or before the eighth day after the close of the month to which the instalment relates, and the proprietor shall furnish to the Assessing Authority a return in Form 'V-B' on or before the 15th day after the close of each quarter to which the return relates."
